Notice to our Readers:

With this issue of the Bulletin we come to a new stage of our research. The reasons are happy ones. The field of ecumenical dialogues and studies continues to expand, so that we have had to limit our citations on the one hand and expand on the other. The limitation we place upon ourselves is that of keeping our research to strictly interchurch, interconfessional dialogues, thereby excluding areas, important though they are, of interfaith dialogues. What we are expanding in a limited way (Appendix) are entries beyond "official dialogues" concerning activities of the Churches, specifically major assemblies, e.g., Basel, Seoul, Canberra (1991), as they involve a growing number of Churches. Furthermore, in view of the on-going concern with the question of "reception" we include entries either directly or indirectly related.

We are likewise in the process of setting up communications with the data bank of the Library of the World Council of Churches in Geneva. Their Direct Enquiry System will facilitate and improve bibliographical research. Eventually we hope to make this available to scholars in Rome. At this time, we welcome suggestions that might make this venture and/or the Bulletin most useful to ecumenical studies and research.
