A CONTINUING BIBLIOGRAPHY FOR THE STUDY OF INTERCHURCH DIALOGUES

INTRODUCTION by the Director of the Centro Pro Unione

The present issue of the Bulletin of the Centro Pro Unione is entirely devoted to a continuation of A WORKBOOK OF BIBLIOGRAPHIES FOR THE STUDY OF INTERCHURCH DIALOGUES, published by the Centro Pro Unione last year. When Fr. James F. Puglisi, S.A., my predecessor as director of this center, began his work of collecting bibliographies on the various dialogues, it was in response to requests of students using our library here in Rome, who found the lack of bibliographical references to the dialogues a serious obstacle to study. CONFESIONS IN DIALOGUE by Ehrenstrom and Gassmann, published by the World Council of Churches, was the pioneering work which attempted to provide some guidance to the material, but bibliographical references were still needed. (The previous number of our Bulletin (Fall, 1978) carried an updated survey of the dialogues since 1975).

Last year, the Centro Pro Unione published Fr. Puglisi's first, provisional collection of bibliographies, calling it a "workbook" because we were well aware that his single-handed effort needed to be circulated among those in the field for comment and additions before it could be considered authoritative. We have attempted to do that in the past year, and we are grateful to those who responded with suggestions and comments.

This present update of that bibliography includes entries roughly from Easter 1978 to date, with additions which were the result of suggestions made by those to whom we circulated the WORKBOOK. We have not had the space to repeat the listings of each dialogue, and readers should use this Bulletin as a supplement, rather than a replacement, of the WORKBOOK. At the same time, the present CONTINUING BIBLIOGRAPHY is complete in itself for the period covered. Those receiving this Bulletin who do not have a copy of the WORKBOOK will find an announcement concerning how it may be obtained elsewhere in this issue.

We are gratified that the First Forum on Bilateral Conversations, convened last year at the request of the Secretaries of the World Confessional Families by the Commission on Faith and Order of the World Council of Churches, commended both CONFESIONS IN DIALOGUE and the WORKBOOK "as continuing sources of information for participants in the bilateral conversations and for those who study their progress". This effort by the Centro Pro Unione to collect and distribute bibliographies on interchurch dialogues is conducted in close cooperation with the Commission on Faith and Order. We are currently discussing with the Commission the possibility of the publication of the texts of the dialogues at a future date.

This Bulletin is distributed, free of charge, to about two thousand ecumenical institutes, centers, publications and selected individuals in an effort to facilitate the study of the dialogues. Any contributions to the project would, of course, be appreciated, and will be acknowledged. Perhaps the most valuable participation consists in the many helpful suggestions and comments offered. Our library is also most grateful to those institutes and publications which have exchanged publications with us, thus helping overcome our limited resources of staff and funding. Another updated bibliography will be published in 1980.

The Centro Pro Unione is a center for ecumenical formation: for study and research, for the exchange of information, and for encounter. To achieve these ends, the Centro runs a series of conferences each year studying various aspects of the ecumenical movement from the pastoral, theological, social and practical points of view. Its facilities are available to any group with an ecumenical concern. The staff organizes programs for individuals as well as groups who visit Rome with an ecumenical purpose. It provides an ecumenical library for students in Rome and is available to supply information on ecumenical activities throughout the world. The library has 7,000 titles of an ecumenical nature in 5 languages (e.g. theological subjects studied ecumenically, dialogues, documentation, Church History etc.) as well as 1,200 bound periodicals (specialized in ecumenics) and more than 100 current reviews.

The Movimento Pro Unione is a gathering together of Christians, clergy and lay people, who are in sympathy with the ecumenical outreach of the Centro Pro Unione of the Atonement Friars in Rome. The members of the Movimento are encouraged to work and pray individually and corporately for Christian Unity where this is possible. The Movimento seeks to be a vehicle to share ecumenical experiences and provides means for ecumenical formation on the local level in Italy.

The Centro Pro Unione is staffed by the Atonement Friars a religious community in the Franciscan tradition, existing specifically to help fulfil the Church's mission of Christian Unity, to witness to the Gospel among Christians and non-Christians and to bring all men to the fullness of unity with the People of God.
