FROM THE DIRECTOR

We ask our Centro Bulletin readers to note that this issue is numbered 31 and 32. Actually number 31 was to be printed last Spring but due to illness and shortage of personnel we were unable to meet our deadline. It will likewise be noted that our present combined volume contains the Third Supplement (with over 700 entries) to our Bibliography of Interchurch and Interreligious Theological Dialogues. We extend our gratitude to our librarian, Signor Sever Voicu, whose patient and diligent efforts made this supplement possible.

Speaking of the talents of one member of our Centro staff reminds me to share with you some pertinent information concerning Fr. Charles Angell who has been the Director of the Centro for the past nine years. Fr. Angell has accepted an appointment to the Atonement Friars' House in London, England (effective, June, 1988) and will be teaching theology during the Autumn term at the following institutions: Allen Hall, the Major Seminary for the Archdiocese of Westminster and Heythrop College, University of London. During the Spring semester Fr. Angell will continue his teaching position here in Rome at the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas, popularly known as the «Angelicum».

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Fr. Angell for his years of dedicated service to the Atonement Friars' Centro Pro Unione. Under his guidance the Centro has provided a forum for many groups and individuals interested in ecumenical affairs. His personal collaboration and cooperation with other ecumenical Centers located here in Rome, his friendship with members of various academic institutions as well as with members of the WCC, his interest in Jewish-Christian relations - all have constituted a singular contribution to the health and vitality of the Centro Pro Unione. All of the Centro staff join me in saying to Fr. Angell: WELL DONE!

Fr. Kevin McMorrow who has been Associate Director of the Centro for the past five years has been appointed its new Director. Permit me to introduce myself:

My theological studies were pursued both at Atonement Seminary and the Catholic University of America, Washington D.C. After receiving my STD from The Catholic University I taught theological courses for five years as a member of the faculty of Notre Dame Seminary, New Orleans, LA. Appointed Moderator of the Atonement Friars' House of Studies in Washington, D.C. (1974), I had the opportunity of teaching both at Catholic University and Trinity College, Washington, D.C. Before coming to Rome in 1982, I served as Superior General of the Atonement Friars for four years. At present I teach in the Ecumenical Theology Department of the Angelicum and likewise at the Pontificium Institutum Regina Mundi.

I ask for your prayerful support as I begin my tenure as Director of the Centro Pro Unione.

We are also happy to announce that Fr. Timothy MacDonald, S.A., has been appointed Associate Director of the Centro. Fr. MacDonald received his doctorate in theology from Marquette University, has taught in the Religious Education Department of Catholic University, is the author of The Ecclesiology of Yves Congar: Foundational Themes and has just completed his term as Director of Novices for the Atonement Friars. Our staff extends a hearty welcome to Fr. MacDonald and we look forward to working with him in the weeks and months ahead.

We are happy to announce that volume eight of our Corso breve di ecumenismo is now available and is comprised of an introduction and nine essays under the title Il vescovo di Roma nella Chiesa universale. Volume 8 as well as previous volumes are offered as supplementary material along with the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity Publications.

As this issue of our Bulletin reaches our readers' desks, the Fall conferences held here at the Centro will have come to an end. These conferences, dealing with the theme «The Catholic Church Today in Dialogue», were prepared and delivered by Staff members of the Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity. We are deeply grateful to these members of the Secretariat for sharing with us their ecumenical expertise and for enriching the lives of hundreds of men and women who constitute the local Church of Rome.
